

A JOURNEY THROUGH

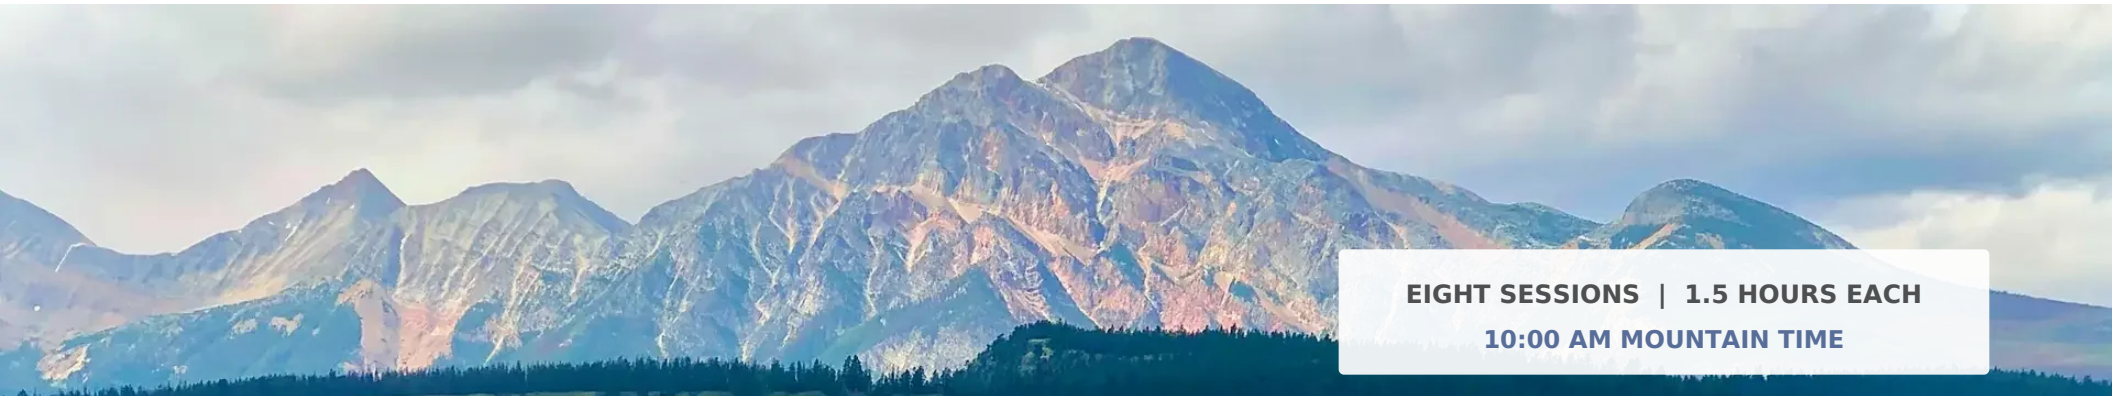

C.G. JUNG'S
TWO ESSAYS ON
ANALYTICAL PSYCHOLOGY

COLLECTED WORKS, VOLUME 7

AN 8-SESSION ONLINE SEMINAR

Facilitated by John Hoedl, M.A. & Dan Cross, M.Sc., R.Psych.

In conjunction with the Pan-Canadian Society of Analytical Psychology (PCSAP/SPCPA)

EIGHT SESSIONS | 1.5 HOURS EACH
10:00 AM MOUNTAIN TIME

Explore One of Jung's Foundational Works

This seminar offers a thoughtful introduction to and critical exploration of C.G Jung's Two Essays on Analytical Psychology (Collected Works, Volume 7), one of the essential texts for understanding Jungian psychology.

Developed between 1912 and 1916 and continually revised by Jung until 1945, this work reflects ideas he considered central to analytical psychology throughout his career.

Together, we will read and discuss the text in depth, examining Jung's foundational concepts while creating ample opportunity for questions, dialogue, and critical reflection.

Seminar Schedule

Amended Dates
● OCTOBER	18
● NOVEMBER	8 & 22
● DECEMBER	6
● JANUARY	10 & 24
● FEBRUARY	7 & 21

Who Should Attend?

This seminar is open to anyone with an interest in Jungian psychology, including:

- Students and professionals seeking a deeper understanding of Jung's thought
- Readers who are new to Jung and looking for a guided introduction
- Those familiar with Jung's work who wish to revisit this classic text in a collaborative setting
- Individuals considering the PCSAP/SPCPA IAAP-approved Training Program, for whom this seminar provides an excellent foundation

Instructors

- John Hoedl, M.A.
 - Diploma, C.G. Jung Institute Zürich (2006)
 - International lecturer on Jungian psychology
 - Past President, Western Canadian Association of Jungian Analysts (WCAJA)
 - Founding Member and Current President, PCSAP/SPCPA
 - Jungian analyst in private practice in Edmonton, Alberta, since 2006
- Dan Cross, M.Sc., R.Psych.
 - Diploma, C.G. Jung Institute Zürich (2023)
 - Lecturer on Jungian psychology
 - Former Graduate Studies Faculty, Loma Linda University
 - Founding Member, PCSAP/SPCPA
 - Registered Psychologist (College of Alberta Psychologists) in private practice since 2005

COURSE FEE

$400 CAD

Eight sessions | 1.5 hours each
10:00 AM Mountain Time

REGISTER BY EMAIL

pcjungsociety@gmail.com

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: SEPTEMBER 30TH

Email directly or scan the code.

SCAN TO EMAIL

MORE INFORMATION

pcsap-spcpa.org

Programs & Training / Seminars